

DREW ATCHISON

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA): Cinematic Arts 05/2021
Azusa Pacific University - Azusa, CA

PRODUCTION EXPERIENCE

Baboon Animation

Writing and Coordinating Intern | 09/2022 to 12/2022

- Worked as intern on a variety of different assignments including script explodes and research.
- Sat in on meetings with various production studios and took detailed notes for company.
- Helped manage schedule for head of company on several occasions.

Inspired Entertainment

Development Intern | 10/2021 To Present

- Read and evaluate prospective scripts for the company to pursue.
- Provided detailed coverage on scripts.

Crossbow Content

Development Intern | 01/2021 To 01/2022

- Assisted Crossbow on various tasks including creating a pitch deck for a potential project.
- Provided detailed coverage on numerous screenplays.

"Time Cowboys"

Producer/PA | 03/2021

- Capstone project for Azusa Pacific University.
- Filmed entirely on green screen, helped to coordinate with director and prepare necessary permits and paperwork for project.
- Made sure production for project went smoothly and actors and crew stayed on schedule.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Escape Room101

GameMaster | 6/21-Present

- Schedule appointments for guests over the phone and in-person.
- Run the games and make sure that they go smoothly.

602-769-1021

drewatchison@icloud.com

ABOUT ME

A college graduate with a BFA in film production. Experience as Script Supervisor, PA, and Editor. In addition to production, is an avid screenwriter who has written several screenplays which have placed as quarter-finalist, finalists, and winner in a number of contests.

SKILLS

- Avid Editing/Pro Tools
- Camera Experience(Panasonic Eva 1, Panasonic AG CX350)
- Microsoft Office (Word, Excel)
- Organizational Skills
- Customer Service
- Final Draft
- Creative Writer
- AV Team (La Casa De Cristo Lutheran Church)
- Eagle Scout